

JASON ANDERSON is fourteen years old. He's got loving parents, good friends, and does well in school. But something has always felt off: although he was born into a boy's body, his mind has always felt like a girl's. After finally confessing his feelings to his parents, Jason discovers that there's a word to describe what he's going through. Jason is transgender.

ORIGINALLY PUBLISHED ON TOPSHELF. part of BigCloset, an online community for reading, writing, and discussing transgender fiction, this book chronicles Jason's journey to become who he always was—Kelly.
